

York Children's University

York CU is part of a national scheme for children aged 5-14 to encourage and celebrate their learning.

What's new with York CU in 2015

We have a busy time ahead of us at York CU this Spring with a wide range of fun events and festivals coming up!

Lots of Learning Destinations will be putting on fantastic activities for Residents' Festival (31st Jan & 1st Feb) and will be opening their doors for free (for those with a York Residents card)

Don't forget your Passport!

We are delighted that Visit York have recently joined us as a Passport Hub, supporting us to promote activities taking place across the city!

CU in the City returns!

Our ever-popular series of CU in the City events will return next month. From the 9th to 20th February there will be wide range of fun, adventurous and free activities.

Booking for events opens on Monday 19th via schools. Keep an eye out!

We now have over 70 Learning Destinations!

Check out our website for an up-to-date list and useful information such as how to get groups validated <http://www.childrensuniversity.co.uk/york>

Want to get stickers at your club?

Is your club or organisation not on our list of Learning Destinations?

Ask them to contact us between the 23rd Feb and 14th Mar to get validated.

Graduation!

Thursday 26th March 2015
Invitations will be sent out after February Half Term.

How many hours are in in your Passport?

We will be collecting current hours as of 23rd Feb either through your school or Passport Hub!

More information will be sent about how to bank your hours.
