

Canterbury Plaque Trail

A coloured plaque is a permanent sign installed in a public place in the United Kingdom and elsewhere to commemorate a link between that location and a famous person or event, serving as a historical marker.

There are blue, black, white, green, grey and bronze plaques across the Canterbury District. Can you tell us who is being commemorated in each location and find out why they are famous?

You can use www.plotaroute.com/route/381321 to help!

Coloured Plaque destination	Who or what is being commemorated?	Why is the person or event famous?
6 St. Martin's Hill, Barton (Blue Plaque)
63 Ivy Lane, Barton (White Plaque)
61 Burgate Street, Westgate (Bronze Plaque)
Whitefriars (Black Plaque)
Lullingstone House, 5 Castle Street, Westgate (White Plaque)
24 High Street, Westgate (Blue Plaque)
St. Dunstan's, Westgate (Black Plaque)
16 St. Radigund's Street, Westgate (Blue Plaque)
30 Notley Street, Northgate (Blue Plaque)
Guildhall Street, Westgate (Blue Plaque)

Dartford Blue Plaque Trail

A blue plaque is a permanent sign installed in a public place in the United Kingdom and elsewhere to commemorate a link between that location and a famous person or event, serving as a historical marker.

Here are 10 blue plaques for the Dartford District. Can you tell us who is being commemorated in each location and find out why they are famous? You can use www.plotaroute.com/route/381191 to help!

Blue Plaque destination	Who or what is being commemorated?	Why is the person or event famous?
The original site entrance to DFC's Watling Street ground
38 Carrington Road, Dartford
On platform 2 at Dartford Station
The original site of Dartford Museum in Essex Road, Dartford
One Bell Corner, Dartford
Outside Royal Victoria & Bull Hotel in High Street, Dartford
Outside Boots the Chemists in High Street, Dartford
North West Kent College, Oakfield Lane, Dartford
Maypole Primary School, Franklin Road, Dartford
Baldwyns Mansion, Calvert Drive, Bexley Park

Faversham Plaque Trail

A coloured plaque is a permanent sign installed in a public place in the United Kingdom and elsewhere to commemorate a link between that location and a famous person or event, serving as a historical marker.

There are blue, black, white, green, grey and bronze plaques in Faversham. Can you tell us who is being commemorated in each location and find out why they are famous?

You can use www.plotaroute.com/route/381344 to help!

Coloured Plaque destination	Who or what is being commemorated?	Why is the person or event famous?
Gatefield House, Preston Street (White Plaque)
Jacob Yard, off Preston Street (White Plaque)
Market Street (Grey Plaque)
12 Market Place (White Plaque)
Market Place (White Plaque)
Court Street (White Plaque)
Faversham Second Guildhall, Court Street (White Plaque)
89 Abbey Street (White Plaque)
The Brents Tavern, Upper Brents (White Plaque)
Priory Row (White Plaque)

Tunbridge Wells Blue Plaque Trail

A blue plaque is a permanent sign installed in a public place in the United Kingdom and elsewhere to commemorate a link between that location and a famous person or event, serving as a historical marker.

Here are 10 blue plaques for Tunbridge Wells. Can you tell us who is being commemorated in each location and find out why they are famous? You can use www.plotaroute.com/route/364078 to help you!

Blue Plaque destination	Who or what is being commemorated?	Why is the person or event famous?
The Corn Exchange, Linden Park Road
40/46 The Pantiles
1 Calverley Park
Victoria Lodge on Calverley Park
The Hotel Du Vin and Bistro on Crescent Road
Holy Trinity Church on Church Road
Thackeray's on London Road (near Mount Ephraim Road)
Mayo House, 66 Mount Ephraim
10 Earls Road
Vale Towers, 58 London Road		